ACHS Board Give Administrators 7% Hike

by GLORIA DAVIS

After studying the evaluations on all of the administrative staff at Antioch High School, it took two meetings for the Antioch High School Board of Education to approve an average of a 7 percent salary increase for the administrators for the 1987-88 school year.

That approval is retroactive to July 1 which is the date the new contract would have begun but the wait for the evaluations delayed the vote.

Admin. Gary Allen gave evaluations on the administrative staff to the board and the board evaluated Allen.

At one meeting, the board voted unanimously to increase Allen's salary to $68,608.

At another meeting all board members except Julie Portalski voted an average seven percent raise for the rest of the staff.

Portalski had said previously that she had to see evaluations to decide how to vote on salary raises when the school is operating on a deficit budget.

This approval raises bring Principal Art Blecke's salary to $63,834; Business Mgr. Ken Wierschem's to $63,834; Dir. of Pupil Services Peter Pekkarinen's to $52,365; Asst. Principal Steve Wapon (head football coach) will get $52,788; Tom Baba (assistant principal 14-7.03 program at Allendale) will be receiving $51,432 (includes baseball coaching, auditorium manager and dean's position).

The department chairmen's salaries will range from that of Roger Andrews (physical ed-health, administrator health department, varsity golf coaching), who will receive a salary of $52,632, to that of Sarah Redd, head of the fine arts department, whose salary next year will be $39,845. The average salaries of the department heads fall into the high to mid-$40,000 range.

Many department chairmen have added responsibilities of teaching and other work during the summer months.

According to Allen, a volunteer administrator's workshop was expected to be conducted at the high school on Wednesday and Thursday to review school policies and procedures.

Voice Leads Cops To 2 False Alarmists

by GLORIA DAVIS

The Antioch Police have arrested and charged two Antioch men for placing four false fire alarms, one on July 12, two on July 13 and one on July 18.

All four alarms were made in the early morning hours and came from the vicinity of the Ship Lounge, off of Rte. 173, on Spring Grove Rd.

The first call came in at 2:50 a.m. on Sunday, July 12, reporting a fire at the Ship. The firemen came running, the fire engines rolled, but there was no fire at the Ship.

The second 911 call came in at 2:03 a.m., on Monday, July 13, reporting a fire at the Lighthouse Tavern, which is located just down the road from the Ship. Again the engines rolled to the Lighthouse where there was no fire. At 3:30 a.m. another call came in and a male voice said, "You missed me, the fire's at the Ship."

The July 18 call came in at 3:03 a.m., also reporting a fire at the Ship.

Antioch Police Lt. Tom Fisher and Sgt. Charles Watkins, while investigating the calls, played the tapes of the calls (all police and fire calls are taped) for employees of the Ship. One employee allegedly recognized a voice.

Police picked up Robert M. Miskanis, 35, Antioch, on a pretext of questioning him about another incident at the Ship. He was informed that the interview was being taped.

The investigators were sure that Miskanis' voice was the same as the one on some of the alarm tapes. Under questioning, Miskanis admitted to making the calls along with another Antioch man, Kenneth Knackstedt, 35. Knackstedt, hearing that there was a (Continued on Page 10)

T-Day Attack Creates Panic On Lake St.

It was lights, camera, action in downtown Antioch for two nights last week. The sidewalks on Main St. were crowded with gapers until the wee hours of the morning as a little taste of Hollywood came to town.

Zechman And Associates, an advertising firm out of Chicago, was shooting a Henri's Salad Dressing commercial, cost "just shy of $75,000," and some Antiochans even got into the act as screaming extras, running in panic from the attack of two giant tomatoes.

About 30 advertising people and technicians and 20 actors from the city, plus a paraphernalia of big lights and other equipment, blocked off Main St. (Rte. 83) for one block between Lake and Orchard Sts. all night long on Wednesday and Thursday.

Those watching seemed to be having as good a time as is usually had at a street dance or summerfest. The restaurants on Main St. were crowded past midnight with unexpected added business.

Laurie Berger, producer of the commercial, said that the commercial was supposed to be shot in Libertyville but there had been trouble in blocking off Rte. 21 and besides Zechman and company did not get a warm greeting there.

Berger said that clips from the movie, "The Attack of the Killer Tomatoes," were going to be incorporated into the commercial and Antioch's Main St. would match the streets in the movie. She was very vociferous on the great cooperation they had received from the village and the people.

The fact that it was a simple matter to block off the area on Rte. 83 with the village's permission and reroute traffic for one block was another added attraction.

The village police were busy seeing that the crowds did not spill onto the "set" and picking up any refuse. The cost of the extra men put on duty was picked up by the advertising company.

Village Trustee Bob Wilton said that one of the newspapers had called him, asking what he thought about Antioch getting the commercial instead of Libertyville.

He replied, "Well, they turned down Hawthorn Mall, what can I say?"

All in all, it was another outdoor summer festivity in Antioch on a night that was too hot to sleep anyway, and who knows, maybe a familiar local face will flash across the tv screen the next time a Henri's Salad Dressing Commercial appears.

Lions Book Goes Over With Bang

The Antioch Lions Club's booklet inserted in last week's Antioch News-Reporter, published by Lakeland Newspapers and compiled by Joe Hunley, Bill Brook and Homer LaPlant, has been extremely well received by the community.

Copies remain available at Lakeland Newspapers or through the Lions Club members.

The Lions Club Annual Farmers Picnic and Bar-B-Que, slated for Sunday, Aug. 2 is expected to be just as well received.

The popular annual event, which includes the Antioch Rescue Squad's Auction, will be an all day event held at Williams Park.

Maxwell St. Sale Days This Weekend

Antioch's retail community will take part in Maxwell St. Days, sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, slated to be held on Thursday, July 30, Friday, July 31 and Saturday, Aug. 1.

Most of Antioch merchants will be featuring big summer discount sales on the sidewalk under colorful awnings.

Early Morning Blaze Kills Man At Home

A raging fire claimed the life of a 37-year-old Spring Grove area man Sunday, July 26, while his wife and child were in Wisconsin.

Dead is Harold Kontansis, who was found fully-clothed in the bathroom of the one-story, wood-frame house he was renting at 38480 N. Fourth Ave., Lotus Woods.

Stu Hoehne, Fox Lake Fire chief, speculated that Kontansis awoke in the smoke-filled home, lost his sense of direction and was then trapped in the bathroom. He added that Kontansis died from smoke inhalation.

According to fire investigators, the blaze ignited in the kitchen, sweeping through the house and causing an estimated $35-$40,000 damage.

A stove malfunction was believed to have started the fire, although the case is still under investigation.

Firemen poured about 13,000 gallons of water onto the blaze which had engulfed the house by the time they received the call at 5:06 a.m. and arrived at the scene.

Responding to the call were 13 firefighters manning five trucks from Fox Lake, Spring Grove and Antioch Fire Depts. Round Lake Fire Dept. stood by in case it was needed.

Firemen had doused the blaze in about two hours after the call was received. Hoehne said the house is located in the Fox Lake Fire Protection Dist. and in the Antioch Twp., but carries a Spring Grove address.

It was the first fatal fire in 1987, Hoehne said.

While firemen were fighting that blaze, another call came in reporting a nearby fire on Third Ave.

Hoehne rerouted a Spring Grove fire truck to the fire which was reported about a half hour after firemen were at the other blaze.

Lightning had apparently struck the house, burning out the electrical appliances, he said. Firemen also doused a fire that cropped up on the side of the house.

See That There Is Future, Then Educate Its Leaders

by GLORIA DAVIS

Unfortunately, I'm afraid I have to agree with Chicago Tribune columnist Bob Greene in saying that the danger imposed by the predicted spread of AIDS should make it the lead story in every newspaper, radio and tv newscast until a cure is found.

If the statistics that are being tossed around are anywhere in the ballpark, it is quite possible that all the monies now being raised for cancer research, Jerry's Kids, the starving people in Africa, etc., should be rechanneled to find a cure for AIDS.

Despite anyone's moral opinion, it looks like it won't be long before the casualties of AIDS will far outdistance all the other in-

I'm no expert in school administration and the management of government funds, so far be it from me to give any suggestions. Some say schools can cut the bric-a-brac and return to teaching the necessary three Rs. But one person's bric-a-brac is another person's quest for a certain kind of knowledge!

Some say that teachers are getting paid too much with benefits that are too high. Others think (especially the teachers) that teachers have the right to a pay scale in proportion to today's high cost of living.

I only know that it is important that our children get a proper education and it is firmities on earth.

How about first things first! Let's get rid of this dread plague or we won't be around to worry about contracting cancer, heart disease and no one will live long enough to starve to death.

In my mind, the second biggest threat to our way of life is the continuing loss of funds for public education.

A well educated child is the future, not only of our country, but of the free world.

It's the time of the year for all the schools to file their budgets for next year and from what I see, hear and read, the loss of fantastic amounts of revenue sharing and other funds may start to hamstring that education.

necessary that those powers that be who have the know how figure out how to keep that education coming, do so!

Every year I am astounded at the lack of attendance reports at the area annual school meetings where the budgets and plans for the next school year are discussed and approved.

More people show up at a village meeting when a zoning request that will affect just a few people is brought up.

Let's look at our priorities! First let's see that mankind will still be around during the 21st century, then let's see that the caliber of adults that will lead that century into history is not an uneducated one.

AFL Wants Johnson

Daniel R. Johnson, son of Frank and Louise Johnson of Antioch, has turned down three separate contract offers from the Arena Football League. The management of A.F.L. is still encouraged that Johnson will sign with them for the 1988 season.

Johnson reportedly felt at this point in his life that leaving Chicago would not be beneficial towards his future plans. He wanted to give the NFL a shot, and felt by coming to the AFL at this time he would not have the opportunity.

Young Single Parents

On Tuesday, July 21, Young Single Parents will have an orientation meeting for all new or interested members. It will begin at 7 p.m. at Pub 'n Grub on Hwy. E and 22nd Ave., Kenosha. A birthday party and prospective members welcome will follow at 8 p.m., with speaker Jean Rizzo

The Time Machine

TWENTY YEARS AGO: July 27,

1967 Antiochans were busy preparing for the coming Diamond Jubilee celebration next weekend.

Dr. William Petty celebrated serving 10 terms as superintendent of Lake County school's under six different governors.

There was a drive underway to gather more goodie packages to send to the Antioch boys in Vietnam. In June a total of 201 packages had been sent to the midwest.

The PM&L Theater was in rehearsal for "Take Me Along," the musical version of "Ah Wilderness." Don Beveroth and Fran Walpole were its stars.

Ted DeRousse joined the staff of Antioch High School as instructor of driver education and physical education.

TEN YEARS AGO: July 27, 1977

Ronald McDonald visited Antioch and Mayor Mike Haley was "Mayor For A Day" at King Richard's Faire.

The new Antioch Twp. Hall on Rte. 173 was almost completed.

Antioch Bowling Lanes was planning an addition that would double its present size.

Joe Patrovsky was preparing the chickens for the Lions Club annual Chicken Bar-B-Que.

Kenny Smouse was doing his musical thing as Colonel Pickering in PM&L's version of "My Fair Lady."

The Antioch Little League Orioles and Coach Mike Schueneman had just won the National League Championship.

Vern Thelen, a low 80s golfer, was the first to enter the Antioch Open Golf Tournament at Spring Valley Country Club. He had been first runner-up the year before.

Along the way with ANNIE MAE

Those who remember Marcia Rules when she worked for Lakeland Newspapers a few years ago were proud to hear that she had her picture of Andre Dawson's unfortunate beaming on the cover of "Sports Illustrated." Ataway Marcia!

Maybe there's still hope for old Annie Mae even though she lost out in the recent Ann Landers countdown!

May I be the 10 millionth person to congratulate Antioch's wonderful Lions on reaching the half century mark in doing wonderful things for the Antioch area.

How time flies! When I see some of the Lions that are Annie Mae's contemporaries, I remember what cutups the used to be between their community endeavors. Some of their roars seem to have slowed to a low growl.

How citified can we get! After hearing from Dave Bushing about the luxury motel, complete with suites and indoor swimming pool we are getting up on Rte. 173, old Annie Mae may just make weekend reservations for a little R and R not so far from home that I'll miss anything.

Back to the Lions, am panting to sink my teeth into some of that traditionally delicious bar-b-que chicken those local cats are famous for at their annual Farmers Bar-B-Que this Sunday.

And since my bosses have insisted that old Annie Mae do her column on one of those new fangled word processors, I've decided on donating my old Remington to the Antioch Rescue Squad's Auction. It should bring a few bucks, after all everyone says that Annie Mae is an antique so her typewriter must be one too!

Heard that the annual State Bank of Antioch's picnic at Holiday Park was a ball, especially the water slides and the bumper boats! What a wonderful place for a picnic on a hot summer Sunday!

Have you girls seen Antioch's director of development Don Davis? And he's single! Have I got a girl for him!

You know that summer is on the down side when the Chamber starts talking about Maxwell St. Days and the school registration dates start pouring into the newspaper. I haven't even got my storm windows down! Might as well leave them where they are. Oh well, my procrastination may have paid off by saving me a lot of work!

As marriages go nowadays, refreshing to see Lt. Tom Fisher and his wife lunching at the Squire almost everyday!

For someone that's supposedly semi-retired, Bill Brook sure keeps himself busy. Those "tall hunting tales" he was telling at the dedication of the Historical Museum were really doosies and how about the good work that he, Joe Hunley and Homer LaPlant did on the Lions' anniversary book!

Antioch has a growing list of residents who made it to the big time.

Saw Ken Smouse the other day and he told me that Elda Minger, who attended grade and high school in Antioch, one of Smouse's former English students, has the number three best selling work of fiction according to Walden Book Stores. The money-making book is called "Velvet Fire."

Anthony Stark, ACHS drama student and PM&L alumnus, who just had a co-starring role on a syndicated tv show with Danny Thomas, has just copped a starring role in a feature movie. More to come on that.

Keith Boem, another ACHS and PM&L alumnus, has his British equity card and is now touring England playing Rooster Cogswell in "Annie," due to open in London soon.

And last but not least, Sandra Lindberg is starring in three Shakespearean plays in the William Shakespeare Festival in West Virginia. Sandra plans to go to Utah after she's done with the festival to start a children's touring drama company.

Building Better Bridge Brings Eagle Badge

by GLORIA DAVIS

A 17-year-old Antioch High School senior, who is about to officially be made an Eagle Scout, has already decided he wants to "build a better bridge."

Brian Clark, who has been involved in Scouting for nine years, in Antioch's Troop 92 for six, is leaving a monument to his Scouting days in Antioch for future Scouts.

He designed and built a footbridge across Sequoia Creek near the Antioch Upper Grade School that leads to trails into a wooded area used for nature walks.

This is just a foreshadowing of things to come since Brian intends to go on to school, possibly Marquette, in Milwaukee, Wis., to study architectural engineering after he graduates from ACHS next June.

The bridge is just to the right as one approaches the upper grade school. It is clearly marked by a sign also made and erected by Brian.

The plank bridge is approximately 20 feet long and three feet wide, has a chain railing and is sturdily built.

This was a year-long project that had Brian designing and drawing the plans for the bridge in May 1986. When he started the actual construction he was helped by his father, Harold Clark, who is an engineer, and other Scouts.

When weather permitted Brian and helpers spent several hours a week working on the project.

His biggest reward will come on Sunday, Aug. 2, when he will be awarded his Eagle Scout Badge at the Court of Honor, at the Antioch Moose Lodge.

Emmons Deals With Goals, Evaluation

In the last few months, meetings of the Emmons School Board have dealt with assessing educational programs and annual goals as well as making plans for the future.

A goal of the 1987-1988 school year was to redefine and expand the junior high program. Exploratory courses are now offered once each week so that all junior high students can be exposed to additional skills, interests and knowledge.

The new algebra sequence for talented seventh and eighth graders has been positively received, with Emmons students achieving well on local and regional math competitions, and the American Junior High School Mathematics Examination.

Another goal this year included enrichment activities for all students at the K-5 level. Each class participated in a special unit designed to expand and enhance critical thinking skills, and to expose students to new knowledge.

Also, because of additional and differentiated staff this year, remedial assistance time was increased for children who needed extra help.

A study skills sequence for sixth graders was implemented, designed to help incoming junior high students with increased study loads and independent projects.

At a study session, the Emmons School Board reviewed standardized test results on a class basis from recent testing. Emmons students continue to test above national norms in both reading and math, scoring in the top 11 percent of the students taking this test across the country. Listening skills will be addressed next year in hopes of improving those scores even further.

The yearly attendance average of Emmons students was 97 percent in the 1986-1987 year, improved slightly over 1985-1986. The state average in 94 percent. Perfect attendance for this year was achieved by 18 students.

Three staff members also had perfect attendance (Vera Poli, Steve Skurski, and Kathy Urzedowski) and were acknowledged through the new staff recognition program initiated by the board.

The board reviewed results from surveys to parents of children in speech, remedial, learning disabled, and gifted programs. Parents indicated that they were pleased with the results of all programs and indicated that such programs had helped their children.

Goals and activities for 1987-1988 at Emmons School include evaluation of the computer curriculum, updating the health curriculum, and implementing long-range plans in light of increased enrollment, financial status, building capacity and program needs.

Emmons School Board is comprised of Alice Gantar, president and Jan Ranney, secretary, Don Lessard, Richard Ruck, Clare DeMartini, Pam Pierson and Phil Dahl. The superintendent is Jill R. Ballock.

Millburn School Grapples With More Enrollment

Millburn Grade School is expecting to have at least 36 more students enrolled for the 1987-88 school year than in 1986-87 school year.

At a July board meeting, board members took action to cope with the district's growth. At the end of the 1986-87 school year, enrollment at the kindergarten through eighth grade school was at 245. It is now at 271 students.

"The whole building will be affected," Supt. Lee Smithey said.

A breakdown of the enrollment by grades shows 38 in kindergarten, 33 in first grade, 26 for second grade, 37 in third grade, 23 in fourth grade, 30 in fifth grade, 25 in sixth and seventh grades, 30 in eighth grade and three in special education.

At the July meeting, the board, acting on the recommendation of its finance committee, agreed to the following classroom divisions for the upcoming school year: kindergarten, two classrooms; first grade, two classrooms; second grade, one classroom; third grade one classroom and two-thirds combination classroom; fourth and fifth grade one classroom each and a combined fourth-fifth grade classroom; sixth grade one classroom; seventh and eighth grade one classroom and one combined seventh-eighth grade classroom.

These divisions are based on current student population and could change with additional students.

"Historically, we have tried to keep classrooms small at Millburn with a big emphasis on primary area," Smithey said.

Smithey said the school may hire more teachers before the school year starts.

In other personnel items, the board expanded Judy Teubner's physical education position to full-time, awarded a five percent salary increase to all non-certified personnel and hired the following new employees: Carol Crane, junior high English and reading; Jim Norgard - junior high social studies; Floyd Meadows - band, chorus; Susan Jaekel - speech and Lesley Yeaton as a bus driver for a fourth route.

Resignations were accepted from Patrice Lawrence, a part-time vocal music instructor who accepted a full-time vocal music position with Avon Dist. 47 and Debbie Jaros, a part-time kindergarten-fifth grade art instructor who has accepted a full-time kindergarten through fifth grade position at Lisle Elementary Dist.

In other action, the board tabled the insurance bids on the building, vehicles and workman's compensation until further study could be concluded.

The board also voted to go forward with an appraisal update of the school complex.

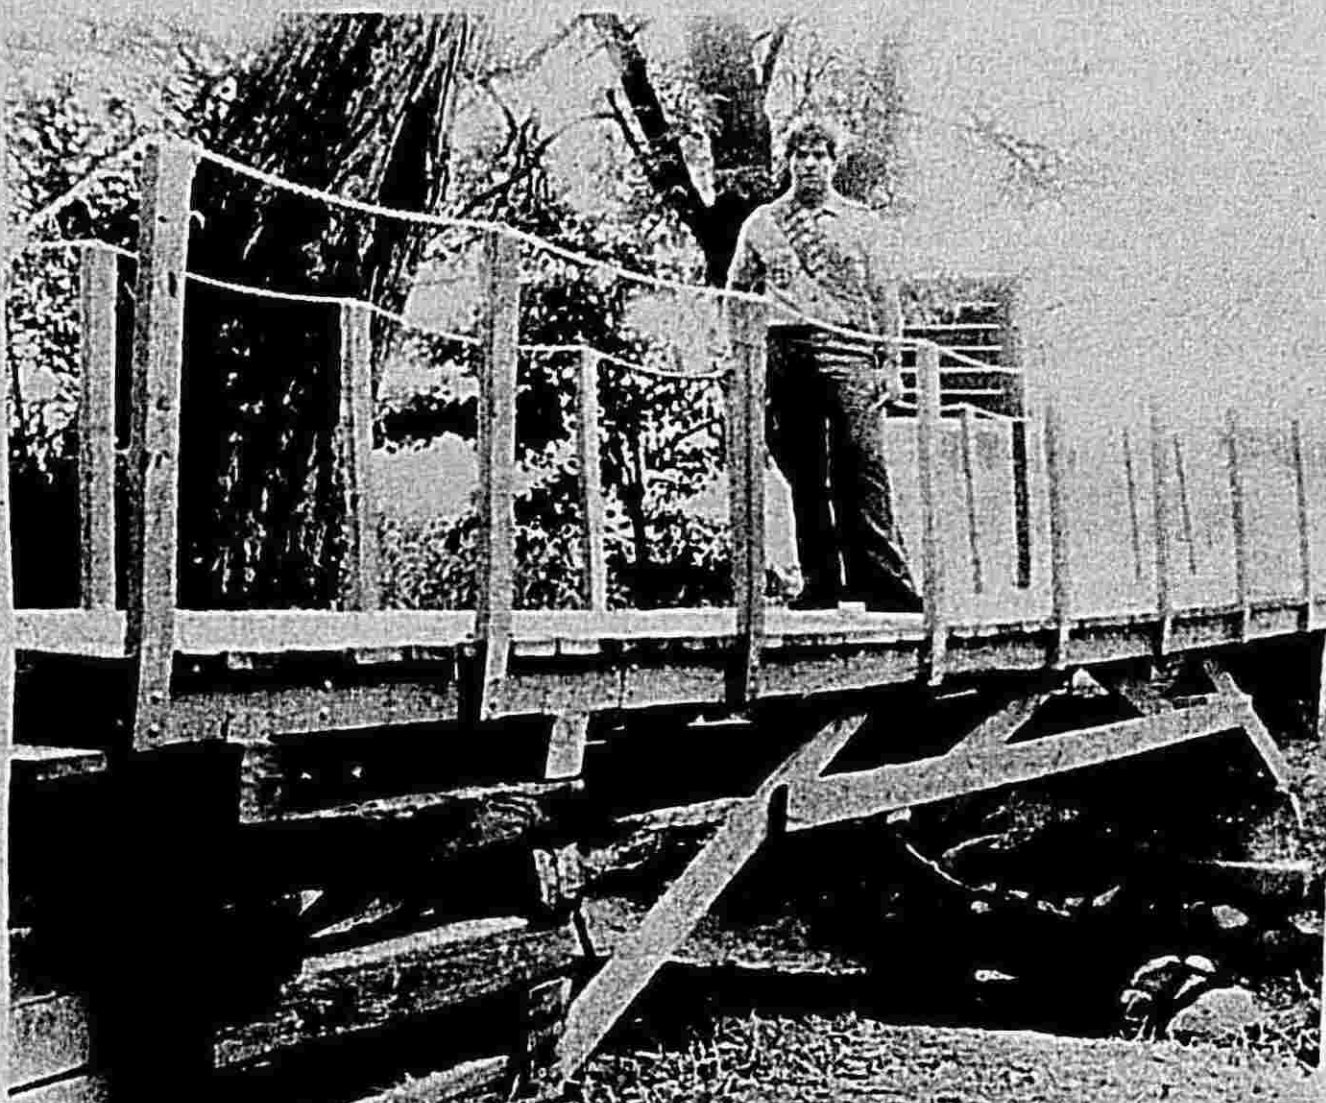

-decided not to send "seed money" to the Saturday Pre-Tech Program.

-decided not to join the Illinois High School Assn.

The board's next meeting will be Aug. 17.

Moose Member Walsh Receives A Guest Gavel

The College of Regents Chapter night of the Antioch Womens Moose Lodge was called to order by Senior Regent Julie Gajewski, who introduced College Chairman Mavis Dingsdale. Members attending were from Lake and Kenosha counties.

The special guest, Dep. Grand Regent Esther Canty, was escorted into the chapter room by all the attending collegians. The gavel was presented to guest Senior Regent Marge Walsh, to conduct the rest of the program.

Collegian Jerri Polson directed Investing Officer Terry Smallwood in the changing of Mavis's green tassel to red, signifying her completion of her first year as a collegian.

The roll call showed there were 48 collegians representing 21 chapters at this meeting. Gov. Joe Gutowski introduced the L.O.O.M. board of officers and Pilgrim Art Anderson and his wife visiting from Florida.

At the business meeting, all officers were presented except Jr. Grad Regent Theresa Grefkowitz (she went to Florida for her son's wedding). The installation of two chairmen was conducted by Installing Regent June Gulbrandsen and Installing Guide Dorothy Tralewski; Mooseheart Chairman Beth Muelnickel and Social Service Chairman Joanie Haas.

The charter was draped for 30 days in memory of co-worker Gert Dupre, who was a long-time member.

Balloting was held on the applications of Sandy Rose, Lisa Gutsmedl, Doris Burton, Laura DiSilvestro, and Darlene Slightman, and the transfer-in of Anita Bonadona. The ballot was favorable.

Reports by College Chairman Jerri Polson and Audit Chairman June Gulbrandsen were accepted by the chapter. Recorder Louise Gutowski read a report from Mooseheart on a change in the rules of affiliation to become members. It is now acceptable to use grandfathers and uncles as a base for affiliation.

Senior Regent Julie was the only birthday marcher and Theresa Grefkowitz was elected "Co-Worker of the Month."

Collegian Marge Hansen said 'bye' to everyone as she is leaving for the north woods. All co-workers are requested to attend the "All-Committee Meeting" on July 30 and the ritual practice on Aug. 3 at the Moose Home.

34-Year Armistice Is The Longest On Record

by JOHN STEINKE

Think of a limited, undeclared war euphemistically called a police action in a divided Asian country where U.S. troops helped a southern republic against communist-backed aggressors in the north. Imagine 54,246 Americans dead, 8,177 missing-in-action and 389 unreturned prisoners of war. Add fiery napalm, helicopters and forsaken soldiers who came home without flag-waving parades or a fitting monument to their sacrifice.

Steinke On Politics

Vietnam? No, Korea. Somehow, it seems as if we have come to think of Korea as tucked in quietly between World War II (1941-45) and Vietnam (1961-1973). Thirty-four years ago July 27, an armistice agreement was signed in a wordless, 10-minute ceremony in a hastily-constructed building a mile north of Panmunjon. It was in this ancient farming community on the 38th parallel that at 10 a.m., the Korean truce, the longest armistice now on record, went into effect.

A hush settled over the blasted landscape at 10 p.m. on July 27, 1953. General Mathew Ridgway, commander of the United Nations forces, later recalled that "there was no wild celebrating or fraternizing such as had marked the end of other wars." Men slumped wearily around a bottle of whiskey or tried the unusual sensation of standing upright without flinching. Thus, after two years and 17 days of simultaneous fighting and negotiating, the Korean War came to an end.

The armistice left both North and South Korea prostrate and poverty-stricken. Their economies were ruined, their cities and villages leveled or battered by the war. Some things have not changed after 34 years. Today, large military forces hold positions on each side of a two-and-a-half mile wide demilitarized zone separating the two Koreas. The United States still maintains troops in South Korea.

Searchlights still play every night over the fingers, crags and ravines of mid-peninsula mountains in the demilitarized zone. The loudspeakers still blare out the metallic music and propaganda messages from the regime of the North Korean leader, Kim II

Sung. Bunkers still honeycomb the hills. They are made of reinforced concrete now instead of sandbags piled helter-skelter atop of engineering stakes. Rather than a truce zone providing a peaceful buffer, the DMZ has remained a strip of armed hostility between the Free World and Communism since 1953.

Simon Has Good Chance Of Winning Nomination

by JOHN STEINKE
(Political Columnist)

Humorist Will Rogers once said, "I don't belong to any organized political party. I am a Democrat." He would have appreciated the quest for the party's 1988 presidential nomination. There are no frontrunners in the Democratic race for the White House. Massachusetts Sen. Ted Kennedy dropped out early. New York Gov. Mario Cuomo refuses to run. Colorado ex-Sen. Gary Hart has quit. New Jersey Sen. Bill Bradley says no. Georgia Sen. Sam Nunn is being coy.

That leaves only the "seven dwarfs": Illinois Sen. Paul Simon, Tennessee Sen. Albert Gore Jr., Massachusetts Gov. Michael Dukakis, Missouri Congressman Richard Gephardt, Rev. Jesse Jackson, former Arizona

Gov. Bruce Babbitt, and Delaware Sen. Joseph R. Biden, Jr.

But some things has not changed. The Iowa caucuses, the New Hampshire primary and the southern mega-primaries remain paramount.

Those three events, in February and March 1988, should be pivotal in deciding the eventual Democratic nominee. The winner in the Iowa caucuses could build up so much momentum that he could sweep through the New Hampshire primary and then the southern primaries. But if several candidates are closely bunched near the top, Iowa's impact would be reduced. At this time, the greatest advantage appears to rest with four candidates in Iowa: Sen. Paul Simon, Congressman Richard Gephardt, former Gov. Bruce Babbitt, and Sen. Joseph Biden, Jr.

Next door to Massachusetts, New Hampshire looks like Massachusetts Gov. Michael Dukakis country. Dukakis' strength is based on regional pride, high name recognition, opposition to the Seabrook nuclear power plant, and his reputation as an ineffective governor. However, Dukakis doesn't have any lock on New Hampshire. The voting in Iowa eight days earlier will have a significant impact on voters in New Hampshire. If Dukakis stumbles badly in Iowa, it could undercut his lead in New Hampshire.

Although the South is conservative, the Southern Democratic presidential primaries are hot. Only 20 percent of eligible Southern Democrats are expected to turn out on March 8, 1988. Many of those will be unionists, feminists, blacks, and others from the liberal wing of the party. That means even a Northern candidate from Illinois, like Paul Simon, could run well in Dixie. If the vote is spread out fairly evenly among the candidates, however, it's quite possible that Jesse Jackson could sweep the southern primaries with the black vote.

Nevertheless, southern leaders have not given up hope that Georgia Sen. Sam Nunn can be persuaded to run. Sen. Nunn currently is swamped with his duties as the chairman of the Armed Services Committee and a member of the special committee on the Iran-Contra affair. The Southern primaries will be a key part of Nunn's strategy.

If Iowa, New Hampshire and the South don't establish a frontrunner, Illinois Sen. Paul Simon has an excellent chance of winning the 1988 Democratic presidential nomination. On March 15, 1988, Illinois will conduct its presidential primary. Since 1972, Democratic primary voters have cast ballots in a statewide "beauty contest" for presidential candidates.

The beauty contest is only a popularity test where voters mark their presidential choice. But the convention delegates actually are chosen in the state's 22 Congressional districts.

Good Health Care Depends On Patient's Participation

Irene Green, Lake County Extension advisor, recommends that people ask questions of their doctors when making decisions about their health.

"There are several options for treating almost every medical problem," she said. "Sometimes the cure is literally worse than the disease, so we need to develop an assertive attitude and question the necessity of recommended medical procedures."

When considering treatments that are costly, involve surgery, or require a long recovery period, she urges patients to question the need for treatment and to inquire about alternatives.

"Most insurance companies recommend that patients get a second opinion before consenting to major medical treatment. Many people think that the purpose of the second opinion is to confirm the original doctor's diagnosis. That's part of it, but the second physician may also provide additional information about the disease and possibilities for alternative treatments," she noted.

Before making any major medical decisions, she says that patients ask themselves and their doctors:

-what is the scientific proof that my health will improve if I consent to the recommended treatment?

-what are my chances that the recommended procedure or treatment will be worse than the usual course of the disease?

-how many effective non-surgical alternatives do I have?

-where is the best place for the recommended treatment to be given?

-where can I get objective answers to my questions about the recent changes in health care delivery systems?

"Don't worry about upsetting your doctor with a lot of questions," Green said. "The only way consumers are going to get the best care is to be assertive and stay informed. Good physicians will interpret those questions as a sign that you're interested in working together to obtain the best health care possible."

Physicians WEIGHT LOSS Centers Produces results in Lake County

Since its inception in 1979, Physicians WEIGHT LOSS Centers has helped thousands of overweight clients change their eating habits to bring their weight problems under control. The great demand for weight reduction services has contributed to the steady growth of this company, which has placed over 230 Centers on the map already.

The Centers guarantee a weight loss of up to four pounds per week if the client follows the prescribed program. Essentially, this means a client could lose up to 56 pounds during a 14 week period. This amazingly fast rate of weight loss is closely monitored by a professional team of doctors, nurses and weight loss counselors to ensure the safety and health of the client.

CLYDE PETERS Director/Administrator

"I, like so many other people, had a weight problem but kind of ignored it hoping it would eventually go away. It didn't, and as I've learned since, wouldn't have. Then this opportunity to become affiliated with Physicians WEIGHT LOSS Centers came at the perfect time in my life and, among many other rewarding things, has resulted in the loss of my excess 31 pounds in just eight weeks. It was so easy I'm committed to maintaining this weight level, which I haven't had since 1952, for the rest of my life."

Almost all of my adult life was spent in a career that had its moments, but I can honestly say that until I became part of the Physicians WEIGHT LOSS Centers and the clients who people our Center, I have never felt so fulfilled and rewarded for the time and effort spent."

LORETTA PRITSCHER, BS, CSC

"By training and experience I am well prepared to deal with emotional wants and needs. At Physicians WEIGHT LOSS Centers the staff plays an important role in helping the client lose weight through individual and group guidance counseling. The results are as ily seen in the amount of weight loss achieved through the Physicians WEIGHT LOSS Centers program. As the Behavioral Guidance Counselor at Physicians WEIGHT LOSS Centers, I help each client establish achievable goals and motivate and support them in their weight loss program."

WANDA LUMPKINS, LPN Nurse and Senior Staff Counselor

"When I began my nursing career nearly five years ago, I set some personal goals related to how I wanted to apply my training. After a series of positions as a Staff Nurse in hospitals and long-term care facilities, I found exactly what I was looking for at Physicians WEIGHT LOSS Centers."

JOANNE ERICKSON, RN Nurse and Senior Staff Counselor

A Registered Nurse since 1971, when she graduated from St. Luke's School of Nursing in Fargo, ND.

"When I was first presented with the opportunity to join the staff at Physicians WEIGHT LOSS Centers it appeared to be a great opportunity to enter a new field and at the same time provide me with a working environment in line with my lifestyle needs.

Needless to say I very soon discovered what a rewarding and professionally satisfying position this is. My nursing and counseling skills are used to the fullest, and the clients respond with weight loss that exceeds our guarantee."

CHRIS PLAZA, RN Staff Counselor

"Before joining the staff of Physicians WEIGHT LOSS Centers in Libertyville, I interviewed with another weight loss plan in the area. All I can tell you is that there is simply no comparison. The goals of Physicians WEIGHT LOSS Centers go far beyond just losing weight. The care and concern about, and commitment to long-range weight goals and maintaining a proper weight level for a lifetime is not duplicated anywhere, to my knowledge."

Fox Lake Youth Judo Group Earns Prairie Games Medals

Ten Fox Lake youngsters probably spent much of Saturday and Sunday patiently watching tv.

And that's not because they are avid cartoon watchers or Cub fans.

The reason for the television watching in Fox Lake for the 10 was because they were waiting to see if their judo efforts at the Prairie State Games survived Channel 9's editing.

The 10 competed in the scholastic division of judo at the state games held in Champaign. Out of a possible 12 gold medals in judo available, the Fox Lake contingent, representing the North Shore region, captured five. Gold medals were won by Alex Rodriguez, Ted Czechowski, Eric Sutton, Bob Foster and Brad Frystak. Bringing home a silver medal was Kevin Fellmeth and Tanya Kozlowski and Carrie Adams brought home bronze medals. Just missing out on medals were Jason Foley and Charles Leach.

"There was quite a bit of competition in the scholastic division," coach Linda Patrick said.

The youths, ranging in age from eighth grade to senior in high school, were competing against those with more experience. With one exception, all were white belts, the lowest belt available and one was a blue belt.

The team was coached by Mike and Linda Patrick who both hold first degree black belts. The Patricks competed in the open division, Linda winning a silver and Mike capturing a gold medal. Linda is a teacher at Shady Lane School while Mike teaches at Grayslake Community High School.

Also accompanying the group was AvonCenter School teacher John Welter, who won a bronze medal winning three of five contests. Welter suffered a shoulder injury in the finals, keeping him short of a shot for the gold.

The Patricks recruited the youths in April to begin preparation for the Prairie State Games. They held practices at Martial Arts Academy of Lake Geneva, WI. and at Shady Lane School.

"For the boys, it was their wrestling background. For the girls, it was sheer determination," Linda Patrick said when asked the reasons for success.

Frystak, for example, is well known to Bulldog football and wrestling fans and will attend Arora College in the fall.

Patrick said most of the boys on the team had competed in wrestling and the talents there had a natural carry-over for judo. The girls, however, only participated in cheerleading.

Patrick said the Fox Lake Youth Council also gave the group support as did Shady Lane School.

Grant Youth Teams Win Tourney Games

Grant's youth baseball teams registered three wins all told in Antioch Youth Tournament action last week.

Grant's 11-year-olds beat Johnsburg 23-1 and Wonder Lake 16-13. In another first-round game for 11-year-olds, Wonder Lake beat Crystal Lake 9-4.

In the tournament for 10-year-olds, Grant clubbed Wonder Lake 26-7 and Johnsburg edged Crystal Lake 5-4. The Johnsburg win eliminated Crystal Lake from the double elimination tournament.

Antioch's 10 and 11-year-olds were scheduled to play Tuesday night.

Eight teams opened the tournament last week. Games are played at Antioch's little league field with the championship game set for Aug. 2.

Hall-Of-Famers To Teach At Williams' Baseball Camp

Hall of Fame Baseball players Ernie Banks, Moose Skowron and Billy Williams will be instructing this summer at the Billy Williams Baseball School in Donaldson, Id. The former baseball "greats" will be featured instructors at the school's one-week training sessions held throughout the summer for players ages eight to 20.

The Grayslake Mohawks took time before their district tournament in Rockford to learn from the camp's instructors.

Banks, affectionally known as "Mr. Cub", is one of the all-time great players for the team. He will instruct at the school during two different sessions, one which started July 19 and again on Aug. 5.

Skoron, who holds the record for the most appearances in the World Series, will also instruct for the same two sessions as Banks.

Williams, currently the hitting coach for the Cubs, was voted to the Hall of Fame this past spring and was inducted into the Hall last week. He earned the honor by being of the all-time scoring leaders in Chicago Cubs history.

The Billy Williams Baseball School offers an 80-acre campus with complete indoor as well as outdoor training facilities. In addition to the full one-week training sessions, the school also offers specialized programs in hitting, pitching and catching. The school emphasizes that all of their training programs stress development of the player's character and self-confidence as well as his skills. For more information, write The Billy Williams Baseball School, box 699, Hindsdale or call (312) 655-1711.

DOCTOR'S FORUM

WHEN TO CALL THE DOCTOR

BY DR. CHRIS BOWMAN

This article is the first of a series dealing with commonly encountered first aid problems. Proper first aid administration and appropriate physician follow-up is discussed. Today's first aid tip is on nosebleeding.

Epistaxis (nosebleeding) usually looks worse than it is. Nosebleeding is primarily caused by dryness of the nasal lining due to lack of humidity, or by trauma induced by habitual picking, constant rubbing or forceful blowing of the nose. Rarely are more serious disorders associated with nosebleeding, such as hypertension or blood clotting abnormalities. First aid management is important with nosebleeding. Proper first aid management will often stop the problem and avoid the expense and inconvenience of a visit to the doctor's office or emergency room. First, the patient should sit upright, which decreases blood flow to the head and takes pressure off the nasal blood vessels. Next, apply firm continuous pressure to both sides of the nose for five minutes. After releasing pressure, if the nosebleed continues, an ice pack should be placed on the bridge of the nose. With the ice pack in place, reapply pressure to both sides of the nose for an additional 10 minutes. If the nosebleed continues after these measures, it is time to contact your doctor.

Dr. Chris Bowman is an osteopathic physician specializing in family medicine at the Heritage Medical Center in Antioch, Illinois.

Richmond Gives Nod To Elderly Housing

by LARRY WITTNEBERT

A housing project for the elderly has been approved by the Village of Richmond after trustees paved the way for annexation of the 1.86-acre site on the western border.

In a survey of need, 45 persons have already shown interest in the project which would contain 20, one-bedroom units in four, brick and vinyl siding buildings.

An annexation agreement was approved by village trustees as sought by the McHenry Housing Authority which will develop the project.

The authority, which already operates a similar, 28-unit complex in Huntly, agreed to extend sewer and water lines up Milwaukee in the Richmond project.

Richmond Trustees provided for the R-2, multi-family rezoning of the property to be annexed.

Containing 625 square feet, apartments would be rented to persons 62 and older and those 50 and over who are disabled.

McHenry County has entered into a contract to purchase the site, pending the annexation and rezoning.

Financing would come totally from an FHA loan to the county at one % interest, enabling the county to charge lower rents.

Minimum rents will be $230-$240. Above that, they will be based on 30% of income, up to a maximum amount.

Before approving the pact for annexation, trustees conducted a public hearing on the proposed action, said Kate Hellmann, Richmond Village clerk.

Twelve person were present, and there were no objections, she said.

Among those attending were Sam

Diamond, Richmond Village attorney; John Bolger, attorney for the McHenry Housing Authority;

Nancy Braun, executive director of the McHenry Housing Authority who has held that post 10 years; and David Jenkins, project architect who presented the plans.

Set Tag Days For Cancer

The Lake County Unit of the American Cancer Society will hold its annual tag day in Antioch Friday and Saturday, July 31 and Aug. 1.

Mrs. Charles G. Hallett (Mary), who will be in charge of the community service project of the Antioch Women's Club, will also have the support of other Antioch residents in order to man eight stations during tagging hours set from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. on Friday, and 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturday.

Florence Babusek, State Bank of Antioch, will distribute and receive the tag day cans.

"Only with the support of the community can the Cancer Society continue to function directly and efficiently in the Antioch area, keeping its services available to all in need," said the chairman of the event.

Many residents of the Antioch community have received a variety of services of the American Cancer Society without charge since the first of the year. She urges Antioch residents to give generously to this worthy cause.

Smash Store Safe, Money Taken From Ben Franklin

by GLORIA DAVIS

According to Antioch Police Lt. Tom Fisher, the Ben Franklin Family Center was broken into sometime between closing hours on Sunday and opening time on Monday.

The perpetrators broke the lock on the front door and replaced it so passing police would not notice the entry.

A safe inside the store was smashed, possibly with crow bars and a sledge hammer, entered and an undetermined amount of money was taken.

Crime scene investigators from Antioch and the state police were at the store for six hours on Sunday. The Antioch police are waiting for the results of that investigation.

Fisher asks that anyone noticing anything suspicious in the area of the Ben Franklin Store Sunday evening or early Monday morning, get in touch with the police.

Alarms

warrant out for his arrest turned himself in to authorities.

According to Fisher, he too admitted making the calls. Fisher said the men said that they sat on the porch across from the ship where Knackstedt lives, and watched the fire engines arrive.

The reported reason for the calls was "to see the firemen work."

Each was charged with two felony counts of disorderly conduct and taken to Lake County Jail.

A check on Miskanis showed that he was wanted in the State of Arizona for violating parole on a conviction of theft.

Miskanis is being held in Lake County Jail on $30,000 bond and according to Fisher, after Lake County is through with him he will be extradited and turned over to Arizona authorities.

Knackstedt, who was charged with the same two class four felonies as Miskanis, was released after posting a $5,000 bond. Lake County court dates for the two are pending.

Antioch's Asst. Fire Chief Wayne Parthun said that the quick solving of this case shows that the fire department is aware where 911 calls come from and take them.

He adds that it costs $500 base everytime the Antioch Fire Dept. rolls, in this case $2,000. But this is minimal compared to the risk that something will happen to the firemen on the way to false alarm or anyone else on the streets if there is an accident.

Parthun adds, "A serious situation could also arise if another fire breaks out while the fire department is busy answering a false alarm, such a delay could also cost lives and property damage."

Antioch All-Star Girls Win District

by CAROLYN HAMMOND
(312)395-6081

Well, the girls have done it again! The Antioch All-Stars showed their muscle and heart after they lost their first game to Grant in the Dist. 16 Junior Girls' Fast Pitch Little League Softball Tournament.

Beating Mundelein in their next game 8-4 enabled them to take another shot at Grant. This time the Antioch girls outpowered them 7-1 setting the stage for a showdown in their third and final game.

The third game was tied 8-8 in the bottom of the sixth inning when a bad throw to the pitcher enabled runner Jenny Wilke to score from third, giving Antioch the win 9-8 and the Dist. 16 championship. Congratulations, girls and manager Jim LaFontaine and coach Ron Horton! Winning pitchers for Antioch were Dawn Morley and Robin Horton.

Next it was on to the Mundelein Sectional tournament. There Antioch met the Dist. 13 champions, Elgin Nationals and lost 11-0 in their first game. They will meet again with the winner

Roadways Get Improvements

by LARRY WITTNEBERT

Road projects sometimes try the patience of the traveling public, but they are vitally necessary, and after all, amount to only a temporary inconvenience.

Such projects dot Lake County as the highway department continues an active program of maintenance and improvement.

In the future, still more projects are planned as the department tries to anticipate and meet future needs of the growing Lake County area.

In Fox Lake, the department is buying a 10-acre tract for $82,000 at Wilson and Rollins.

The site is included in the department's five-year program and part of the land will be used to relocate Rollins to the south.

Traffic signals will be placed there and the steep grade on Rollins will be removed, said Martin Buehler, supt. of the Lake County Highway Dept.

But he added that no date or timetable has been set for the proposed work.

Throughout Lake County, the department purchases land at selected sites that will have future use.

In Fox Lake, a real estate agent is handling the transaction.

Traffic signals and left turn lanes are planned for the Delany and Wadsworth intersection this fall.

Future work may well also include the Libertyville and Vernon Twp. area where traffic counts peak in Lake County.

Meanwhile, projects continue to upgrade the roadways such as the one for $390,344 in Lindenhurst.

Work is underway on a mile-long stretch from 500 feet east of Beck Rd. to Rte 45.

The roadway is receiving a base course replacement because county tests showed such work was needed.

Metal drainage pipes will also be removed and replaced with concrete channeling.

In other work, Peterson Rd. is being reconstructed on a four-mile segment between Ill. 60 and US Rte. 45 with the detour on Ill. 60.

Work has also begun in Lake Villa Twp. on taking the jog out of Monaville Rd. at Fairfield and Cedar Lake Rds., with the detour planned for Rollins.

Each of these two projects is costing $750,000.

Home Purchases Set Record Pace

Families have been buying newly-built homes in the Chicagoland area at a record pace.

Coldwell Banker Real Estate-Chicago/Milwaukee reports its sales of new construction in 1986 jumped 75 percent over 1985, and 1987 sales rose 30 percent over 1986 for the first quarter alone.

Buyers are choosing new construction because of the opportunities building offers for obtaining their dream homes. Additionally, more services are now available to facilitate the buying process.

In the northern and northwestern suburban areas, Coldwell Banker's unique Builders Workshop is bringing together buyers and contractors on a one-on-one basis and with record success.

The program was pioneered by Coldwell Banker's Lake Forest branch Sales Manager Stevie Clark, who learned as an award-winning sales associate for the firm's Deerfield office, that a significant number of homebuyers are upgraders of transferees wishing to build. She also found that custom homebuyers have special needs.

Transferees in town for a few quick househunting trips have to make a decision fast, with neither the time to shop around for builders, nor the resources to check credentials.

Even local buyers may not have the desire or know-how to select top-notch contractors. For both, the solution lies with a well-known real estate firm that has relationships with quality builders.

As a sales associate, Clark began matching customers with individual homesites and builders. She originated the Builders Workshop program in 1985.

The program was so successful, it led Coldwell Banker to expand its services to the northern suburban area by opening a new office under Clark's management in November 1986 at 514 N. Western Ave., Lake Forest.

Since December, the office has recorded over $12.5 million in custom home sales, bringing a total of more than $20 million the sales volume generated by the Workshop since its inception.

Besides coordinating sales, the Workshop provides educational seminars with builders to help salespeople acquire skills needed in selling new construction.

"Picture yourself taking a client out to look at a piece of land you can't drive into because it has no road," Clark said. "Imagine holding an 'open house' in a car parked by a vacant lot because there's no home to show."

"Often, we take clients to see houses our builders have constructed in other communities. A concept begins to form. We get competitive bids. Then we can start."

Coldwell Banker's Lake Forest office has a special Builders Workshop room where contractors, sales associates and buyers come together to plan a new home. The walls are lined with shelves for blueprints, artists' renderings, and floor plans. Currently, the Builders Workshop represents 15 area builders.

"Last year, 15 to 20 percent of our business came from Coldwell Banker," said Orren Pickell, Pickell Builders, Mettawa. "Coldwell Banker serves as our marketing representative, but they also provide service to the buyer, and the buyer needs that."

"I've seen all the tricks that can be played in custom home building," Pickell continued. "Unfortunately, sometimes it's a situation of 'Let the buyer beware.'"

The buyers Stevie and her staff bring me trust Coldwell Banker to select a reputable builder. They're very well prepared to understand new construction."

Steve Rice, vice president of Arthul Greene Construction, headquartered in Vernon Hills, said, "Half our business is transferee-connected. Coldwell Bankers brings us qualified buyers, not just shoppers. We trust them to use our time well."

"We want to please Coldwell Banker," said Pickell, "so we work at pleasing the customer—that's the bottom line. It's double protection for the buyer. The final analysis is, the relationship is good for everybody."

With 69 residential sales offices in the Chicagoland and Milwaukee areas, Coldwell Banker is the nation's largest full-service real estate company and part of the Sears Financial Network.

Golf Course Offers Hub For New Community

The homebuyer seeking top quality construction, combined with elegance and exciting design concepts, will appreciate the new Sterling Greens golf community in Buffalo Grove, now in its pre-construction sales phase.

Sterling Greens is being created by Jacobs Homes, Inc., a three-generation, family owned and operated business. The Jacobs family has been building homes on the North Shore since 1952.

They have designed many residential communities in the North suburban area, including Northbrook Knolls, Waters Edge and North Trail in Deerfield, Wildebroke in Northbrook, Hunter Hill in Wilmette, King Richard's Court in Deerfield, Morton Woods in Morton Grove and The Gardens of Wilmette.

Sterling Greens will consist of 29 one-half acre and one acre lots, each containing no less than 12 trees.

The community will be built around an 18-hole public golf course, with choice one-half acre sites offering views of the greens. The one acre lots are contiguous to Long Grove.

Golfers will enjoy the convenience of being able to walk out their door to get to the links.

This will provide the homeowner with a feeling of being "away from it all" without leaving the conveniences of suburban life.

Sterling Green marks the first venture of Jacobs homebuilders into Buffalo Grove. "We build every house as if it were our own," said Keith Jacobs, vice president of the building firm. "We are taking this same care to build homes we will be proud of in Sterling Greens," he added.

The builder is introducing new architectural concepts to harmonize with the unique golf course setting of Sterling Greens. One of these is the Bridger, a contemporary two-story, four-bedroom home, featuring bridge overpasses connecting the upper and lower living areas.

The Bridger will contain such high-design features as a conversation area with see-through bar, family room with floor-to-ceiling fireplace visible from the two-story foyer, skylights, and five-sided bay breakfast area.

"These features have been requested by our customers," said Jacobs Homes' senior vice president/Marketing and Sales, Joseph Jacobs. "This is a very exciting house for the homeowner ready to move up to something different."

Joseph Jacobs pointed out that Jacobs Builders will customize any model chosen to add upscale features, such as a toy room, screened-in porch, sun room or mother-in-law living area.

"We constantly work with our homebuyers to insure that their needs are met," he said. "The sky's the limit on options available to our buyers."

One of these features is a "splash bath" included in the master bedrooms suites of many Jacobs' homes. This "splash bath" consists of a Roman or whirlpool tub, a compartment area containing an all-glass shower stall and toilet, and cathedral-style ceiling with skylight.

"Many people are ready to move up to a Jacobs home," said Joseph Jacobs. "We've already received deposits for nine of the 29 lots from people who want to secure choice golf course sites."

Sterling Greens is located at Rte. 22, east of Rte. 83 in Buffalo Grove.

Until the on-site sales office is completed in mid-July, interested home seekers can call (312) 498-4730 for more information. They may also visit the Jacobs Homes, Inc. sales office located at "Wildebroke on the Green" in Northbrook, 15 minutes from the Sterling Greens site. The address is 3652 Palm Canyon Dr., Northbrook, which is located on Dundee Rd. in the Wildebroke subdivision, a half mile east of Rte. 294.

Construction Underway On Commerce Center

Construction has started and leasing activities have opened for Commerce Center at Mundelein, a new complex with industrial, business and manufacturing space designed especially for the small-but growing-entrepreneur.

Jack Forney, head of the real estate firm of J.C. Forney & Co. of Libertyville, said "preliminary inquiries from prospective tenants indicate there is a drastic shortage of spaces of 1,500, 2,000 or even 2,400 square feet in Mundelein."

"This new center will be a haven for these small entrepreneurs who have been operating in attics, basements or garages, but who have been shut out from modern operating space," Forney declared. "Most space offered for manufacturing and business operations in the area come in increments of 5,000 square feet or more."

The Mundelein center is sited on a 3.4-acre tract that provides parking for 114 cars or service vehicles.

The new center is scheduled to accept its first tenants in October. It consists of twin buildings totaling 51,100 square feet of space.

The center is the brainchild of Jim Freiberg, a 35-year-old real estate executive and developer, who was encouraged in the Mundelein center by the success of a similar development, Commerce Center at Palwaukee.

Commerce Center at Palwaukee, a new 65,250 square foot office-warehouse complex, serves tenants whose space needs range from 1,800 to 5,000 square feet. Located near Palwaukee Airport in northwest suburban Prospect Heights, it is more than 60 percent leased.

The Mundelein center is designed to accommodate as many as 20 tenants or as few as 14 to 15, depending on individual space needs.

Where's The Teeth? In Nuisance Court

Note: This is the 14 in a series of articles about building and zoning violations in the county.

by LARRY WITTNEBERT
Robert Henkel, new Fox Lake building code officer, has already gained some interesting insights into his job.

Courts need to get tougher on violators in order the help clean up messy yards that mar some areas of the village, he said.

He points to George Novack as an example whose case was in the works for about seven months

Names Crane As 'Friend'

U.S. Representative Philip Crane (R-Ill.) was named a "Taxpayers' Friend" in the annual rating of Congress recently compiled by the 150,000 member, non-partisan National Taxpayers Union (NTU).

The NTU study analyzed the votes cast by House and Senate members on all votes relating to reducing taxes, government waste and spending during 1986.

Crane's score of 75 was the fourth highest score in the U.S. House of Representatives.

Commenting on his excellent score, NTU Executive Vice President David Keating said, "Congressman Crane has clearly established himself as a leader in fiscal responsibility in the Illinois delegation and in the Congress." Keating added, "More Representatives should follow Philip Crane's lead in voting for reduced government spending."

NICASA Promotes Awareness

Northern Illinois Council on Alcoholism and Substance Abuse (NICASA) has launched "The Big Lie," a program promoting cocaine awareness during July and August.

"The Big Lie" refers to myths surrounding cocaine, including the notion that cocaine is not addicting, cocaine can't kill a person, and cocaine is an aphrodisiac. A few realities regarding cocaine include:

-20 to 24 million people have tried cocaine at least once in their lives.

-Deaths due to cocaine tripled from 1981-1985.

-Cocaine is a powerfully addictive drug that can cause severe social, medical and psychiatric problems.

-Persons needing help with cocaine addiction can call the toll-free cocaine hotline at (800)445-COKE.

NICASA has free educational fact sheets on cocaine, covering historical, statistical and factual information. Anyone interested in obtaining a fact sheet may call Sue Babuta at (312)244-4434.

before the circuit court handed down a possible $300 fine if he doesn't clean up in a month.

The case had already cost the village in terms of manhours and legal expense.

Novack, an absentee property owner from Chicago, failed to make court appearances until the middle of this month, according to Norm Yost, former Fox Lake building code officer.

Meanwhile, blighted property in the village continues to pose a health and safety hazard, Henkel said. Junk cars expose broken glass in some cases and debris is a breeding ground for vermin.

Despite the problems, Henkel said that in some cases of hardship, the spirit rather than the letter of the law would be more effective.

He noted one instance where the mother of four children had just gotten out of the hospital and her husband was in a nursing home recovering from a nervous breakdown. He said that she was receiving a disability check.

Henkel said that he told her that as long as she was doing something to clean up the mess, she would be okay.

He said that the situation would be a good one for Boy Scouts to help out with. Perhaps Fox Lake would open its heart for the family, especially at Christmas, he said.

In another case, the resident said that he sees a psychiatrist on a weekly basis.

The man claimed he repaired appliances, although the decaying washing machine in his yard was beyond repair, Henkel said.

Thus, Henkel noted that while situations do vary, his efforts to deal with and eliminate nuisances and eyesores will go unabated.

Continuity Is Byword In Change Of School Chief

by CHARLES JOHNSTON
Managing Editor

After 12 years as the top man in education for Lake County, Bill Thompson will hand the reins over to Sybil Yastrow at 11 a.m. on Monday, Aug. 3.

Even as he is retiring, though, Thompson is not getting completely out of the field of education: he will remain as a part-time educational consultant to Yastrow.

"I've enjoyed it and have appreciated the support I have been given," the superintendent said of his 12 years in office. "But I'll enjoy being able to spend a little more time fishing," he grinned.

A lifelong resident of Antioch, Thompson built a reputation as a straight-shooting, occasionally undiplomatically blunt leader. He was a supporter of legislation which would have redrawn school district boundaries across the state and given residents of local districts the opportunity to vote on whether to create unit districts. It was a school administrator's nightmare. A less experienced regional superintendent probably could not have supported and retained the friendship of the many elementary school administrators across the county. But Thompson did, in large measure because his office has been right there to help when any district has had a crisis.

The point became moot when the state legislature gutted the legislation in question, but Thompson continued to build strong relationships with all districts.

When a local superintendent has left suddenly, due to illness or unexpected resignation, the regional superintendent's office has been right there. Several times, Thompson has acted as interim superintendent himself for a local district during a crisis.

The woman he will hand the reins to has been with the office as long as he has been in charge. Yastrow began as an educational consultant in 1975 when Thompson entered office. She became an assistant superintendent and then the 1st assistant superintendent.

Yastrow is a Thompson supporter and plans no major changes in the office.

"I want to continue the things we've been doing," she said. "Our relationships with the local districts have been very positive. I'm fortunate to come into the office with the experience I have. I know where the resources are and I know how it is run."

So, though a new superintendent will soon take over, her attitude is that if it isn't broke, don't fix it. And no one thinks the regional superintendent's office is broke in Lake County.

YCC Completes Cuba Marsh Dam Project

The Lake County Forest Preserve Dist.'s Youth Conservation Corps has completed a dam structure at Cuba Marsh to improve water quality and enhance wildlife utilization.

Three crews of high school youth have been working for the Lake County Forest Preserve Dist. since June 15. The students have performed jobs ranging from garbage cleanup to timber construction.

With completion of the boulder and timber dam, water at Cuba Marsh will be maintained at a level sufficient for migratory birds and endangered species to nest and feed during the long dry months of summer. Species which frequent the area include the great blue heron, great egret, common moorhen, blue-winged teal, black crowned night heron, American bittern and numerous waterfowl. Game bird species found at the marsh include the ring-necked pheasant, snipe and woodcock.

The YCC program is an eight-week program in which Lake County high school students ages 16 to 18 participate in recreational development, conservation and maintenance of the county's forest preserves.

Donald Strenger, president of the Lake County Forest Preserve Dist., stated, "The YCC program was initially funded by federal grants; however, since 1981, it has continued through corporate and private donations. All monies donated are applied directly to the youths' salaries, and Lake County Forest Preserve Dist. provides for all other operational costs and materials."

Overbooked Flight-- What Does It Mean?

by JIM WARNKEN

President, North Star Travel

You've got your ticket, you've checked your luggage at the gate and are ready to fly. Suddenly there is an announcement. "I'm sorry, ladies and gentlemen: Your flight has been overbooked."

What do they mean, "overbooked?" Can an airline sell more tickets for a flight than there are seats on the plane? You bet they can. Look at the fine print on the envelope your ticket came in. It reads, "Airline flights may be overbooked and there is a chance a seat will not be available on a flight for which a person has a confirmed reservation."

Why would an airline overbook? The reason is quite simple. Many people make reservations, don't travel, and don't cancel. This runs on the average of 20 to 30 percent. These are called "no shows."

To compensate, most airlines overbook by about 10 to 15 percent. The problems come about when everyone shows up! What happens in that case? First, anyone traveling on a free ticket will be "bumped" from the flight. This includes airline employees traveling on free passes and travel agents who may have earned a free ticket. (I'm writing this article from the Miami airport, having been bumped from a flight home!) Frequent flyers traveling on earned tickets may also be bumped.

If there are still not enough seats, the airline will ask for volunteers. Here is your chance to earn free travel, money and maybe even fly first class for free!

First find out on which flight the airline can accommodate you if you do give up your seat on this one. If you have got the time, it could well be worth your while.

You will be offered some sort of compensation. Most often, it is a free ticket to use on your next vacation. You may even receive cash in addition to your free ticket. It is quite common to be given a first class seat on the next flight out. If the next flight is not until tomorrow, you will be given a hotel room and free meals. If your overbooked flight leaves you in Hawaii, that may not be so bad!

So, the next time you are looking for an excuse to spend a little more time in that vacation paradise, hope for an overbooked flight.

LakefrontFest '87 Promises Best Yet

LakefrontFest '87 promises to have more in store than ever before according to special events director Debra Paravonian. Festival date is Sunday, Aug. 9, from noon until 10 p.m. on Waukegan's beach.

Admission and parking are both free. Included in this year's entertainment line-up is national jazz trumpet artist Maynard Ferguson. Ferguson will be touring his 1987 album release with his new band High Voltage.

Their music is on the order of jazz fusion with an electronic and computerized light and sound mix. He, of course, is still the featured artist on the new album and his trumpet sound has never been better.

The main stage will also host Big Twist and the Mellow Fellows; a Chicago-based and nationally known rhythm and blues band, and Ten-28, an up and coming original soft rock band. The ethnic adage will host such names as 4 Guys Standing Around Singing, Banjo Buddies Dixieland Band, Midnight Cowboys Country Band, and Second Wind.

The children's area has been expanded this year to include free kiddie carnival rides, freestyle bike, kite, and skateboard demonstration plus an arts and children's stage including magic acts, puppet shows and ethnic dancers.

All Stars Sports Bar & Grill will be sponsoring a second annual volleyball tournament. Entry fee is $10 per co-ed team and the tournament will be double elimination. To enter, call (312) 360-9000 ext. 513 or (312) 662-6500. A sandsculpting contest for children and adults will be sponsored by Shimer College. For more information, call (312) 623-8400.

Over 40 of the finest area restaurants will be serving ethnic and American foods for all to sample. The Worlds of Waukegan will include Potesta's Pizza, Chuck's Prime Foods, Orestis Gyros, Ling Ling Chinese Food, Tewes Bar & Grill, Cribbs Foods, People's Choice Greek Specialties and many more. For information, call the City of Waukegan Special Events Office at (312) 360-9000 ext. 513.

Crystal Gayle

Crystal Gayle Coming To Great America

Popular country vocalist Crystal Gayle has been added to this summer's line-up of entertainment at Six Flags Great America.

Gayle, who will soon release an album of ten duets with Gary Morris entitled "What If We Fall in Love?" will perform two concerts on Aug. 2 at 3 and 5 p.m. in Pictorium Plaza.

While Gayle's musical roots are country, she grew up singing all kinds of songs. Influenced by such varied talent as Leslie Gore, Patsy Cline, the Beatles, and Peter, Paul and Mary, her musical range seems unlimited.

According to Gayle, "I guess you could say that the blues, or pop music or torchy ballads... whatever it might be, just kind of comes naturally."

Perhaps best-known for her chart-topping "Don't It Make My Brown Eyes Blue," Gayle has just finished her 14th album. "What If We Fall in Love?" includes the upbeat "Makin' Up for Lost Time" and the romantic "Theme From Another World," the brand-new title song for NBC-TV's daytime drama of the same name.

Midlane's Golf Course Matches Main Course

by GLORIA DAVIS

Two years ago Midlane Country Club in Wadsworth, on Yorkhouse Rd., just west of Delaney Rd., was taken over by Tom Rosenquist, Jerry Zwolak and Howie Robinson.

They immediately embarked on completely renovating both the well-known golf course and clubhouse.

Today, the new Midlane boasts a rivalry to the facilities of any other country club in the area and especially those that do not require high private membership fees and are open to the public like Midlane.

The championship 18-hole golf course was designed by Robert Lohman Golf Designs and it features five lakes, an island green and a scenic waterfall. There is also a lighted driving range for those who care to work on their drives in the evening.

Because of its growing reputation, Midlane has become a popular spot for many of northern Lake County's corporate golf outings.

A golf course becomes a country club of repute when it is accompanied by an outstanding clubhouse. That is the case at Midlane where the clubhouse is fine enough, not only for golf outings, but Midlane's reservation file is filled with banquets, weddings and business meetings.

The three spacious banquet rooms offer

Lake Forest Plans Big August Hoopla

Lake Forest Day, a morning-til-midnight series of events which includes two parades, a fun run, band concert, fashion show, dance, and carnival is scheduled for Wednesday, Aug. 5 in downtown Lake Forest.

The theme of this year's events is "Lake Forest Celebrates The 200th Anniversary of Our Constitution". An annual event, Lake Forest Day was first celebrated in 1908, making this its 80th annual year.

The day's events begin at 7 a.m. with the Lake Forest Day Fun Run and end at midnight with the awarding of a $5,000 grand prize. Sponsored for over 60 years by McKinlock Post 264 of the American Legion, proceeds from Lake Forest Day events are used to support social and charitable services in the community.

The 7 a.m. fun run over city streets begins at the recreation center on Hastings Rd. with runners participating in either 3,000 or 10,000 meter events. Prizes in several age categories plus grand awards for the top finishing male and female runners will be given for both distances.

A children's parade featuring decorated bicycles and contingents of youth groups steps off at 9:15 a.m., followed at 10 a.m. by the main parade featuring award-winning musical units from as far away as Phoenix, Ariz.

Floats decorated by businesses, civic and social organizations, or individual groups will vie for the Commander's Trophy and awards in each of five categories.

From 11 a.m. until midnight, a carnival featuring rides, games, food, drink, and special events will be held in West Park.

A band concert including patriotic music and New Orleans style jazz played by the widely respected drum and bugle corps of Troop 63, Boy Scouts of America, from River Forest, begins at 12:30 p.m. in West Park.

A fashion show by teen-age models featuring fashions of local merchants will be sponsored by CROYA, a civic group devoted to youth activities, at 5 p.m. in West Park. Admission is free.

Adler Center To Hold Festival Of Arts, Aug. 1

The David Adler Cultural Center's annual Festival of the Arts will be celebrated on Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 1 and 2, from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. both days.

During those two days, more than 100 artists and craftspeople will display their works on the center grounds. All pieces will be available for sale.

There will be a children's courtyard where youngsters can paint and create wooden sculptures. On Saturday, juggler and storyteller Bob Kann will entertain children of all ages. Kann's performance and the Children's Courtyard are being sponsored by McDonald's of Libertyville, Mundelein and Vernon Hills.

Other area restaurants will participate too, by selling some of their most popular refreshments at booths on the center grounds.

On Sunday, Libertyville Federal Savings and Loan will sponsor a Festival of Folk and Ethnic Music.

Featured performers include Bob and Becky Wernerehl from the Wisconsin Folklore Center, playing a variety of Scandinavian-American music and instruments; the Balkan Rhythm Band, playing music from East European traditions; Honeyboy Edwards, one of the group Gaping Maw, performing Irish vocal music and tunes; and the Volo Bogtrotters Stringband, playing a wide variety of old-time tunes, many from Illinois.

Set Diaper Derby At State Fair

Parents with speedy infants are encouraged to enter them in the Diaper Derby, Friday, Aug. 21 at the 1987 Illinois State Fair.

In the contest, parents set their children around a six-foot circle. The parents then line up directly in front of their children on a 20-foot outer circle. Once started, the infants, who must be less than one year old, have five minutes to crawl to their parents.

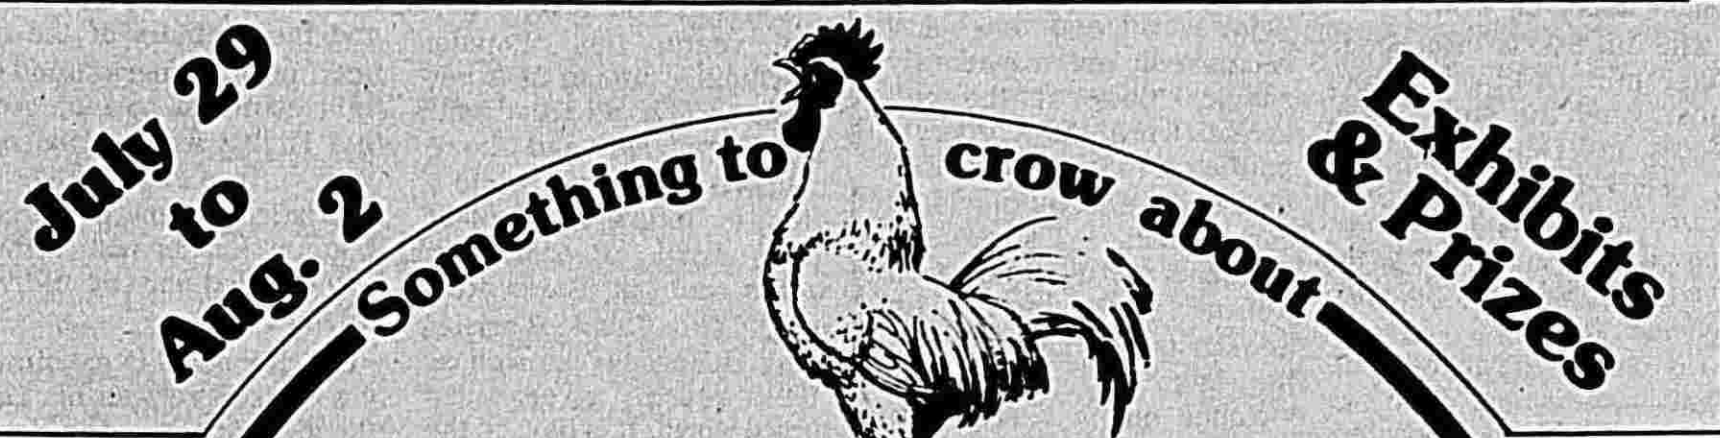

The Diaper Derby winning baby will receive a trophy and a large box of diapers. This event will begin at 3 p.m. in the Twilight Ballroom, located in the southeast corner of the fairgrounds.

For the second year at the fair, the Decorated Diaper Contest will be held at 3:30 p.m., immediately following the Diaper Derby.

Fuel Tax

Lake County received $31,222.42 as its share of motor fuel tax paid into the state treasury for June, according to the Illinois Dept. of Transportation. Motor fuel tax funds are allocated monthly to counties for their highway needs. The monies allocated are computed on the basis of motor vehicle registration fees.

'Robocop' Needs More Humanity

☒ YES
☐ NO
★★½

When most people hear the term "cyborg" - the word for a being that is part man and part machine - the image that may spring to mind first is that of The $6,000,000 Man tv show from the 70s. Well, imagine how that same idea might turn out in the hands of, say, Sam Peckinpah and George Lucas if they made a movie together and that should provide an idea of what "Robocop" is like.

The full title is "Robocop: The Future Of Law Enforcement" and the story takes place in Detroit in an unspecified time in the near future. A young policeman named Murphy is mercilessly shot and left for dead by a vicious gang.

His body is destroyed but what remains of him is salvaged and incorporated into a nearly indestructible metal body by a corporation that has contracted to run the city's police force. He becomes the first "Robocop", a "24 hour a day police officer" designed to wipe out crime. He then sets out to do battle with some of the most despicable villains ever to ooze across a movie screen.

Peter Weller plays the title character and does a good job of creating a sense of character in this difficult role. Nancy Allen plays his partner, trying hard to understand what has happened to him.

Ronny Cox, an actor best known for playing "ideal dad" type characters, has a real departure in this film as a particularly evil man. He makes the most of the opportunity to play against type.

The movie works well on certain levels. It does a good job of creating this bleak, grim world and making it seem real. As a viciously satirical look at the cut-throat world of corporate politics, it makes "Network" look like a Disney movie by comparison. There are moments of truly funny dark humor provided by newscasts interspersed with the story. At times, the violence has a surrealistic style that is effective.

However, the story falls short in that not enough time is spent developing the characters of, and relationship between, Weller and Allen. Also, the most interesting theme in the movie - the idea of this tragic character searching for who he was while trying to come to terms with what he has become - is barely touched on. If a little more time and attention had been devoted to these things, it would have made for a better movie.

'Robocop' Delivers A Hero For Our Future

☒ YES
☐ NO

I once had occasion to overhear someone saying, "The future is not what it used to be and what's more, it never was." I think the wonderfully mixed up logic of that quote would best describe the setting of the film 'Robocop'.

In the past, the genre of 'futuristic' films have, with few exceptions, painted a pretty bright picture of the world to come. In the past few years, this 'Popular Mechanics' image of a not-too-far-off world filled with great gadgets and home heliports, has turned into a view of future as a place gone awry. Recent film works such as 'Blade Runner', 'The Road Warrior', 'Max Headroom' as well as '1984' reveal a degraded future world. It is beyond the scope of this review to investigate the moral and physical forces that have worked toward this vision of future life, but it is in this darker vision of our future that 'Robocop' lives.

Just as Clint Eastwood's 'Dirty Harry' inhabited a '70's view of urban society gone bad, so too does Peter Weller's 'Robocop' live in a '90's crime-ridden Detroit. 'Robocop' is a cyborg (part man, part machine), that was once a policeman. After a severe gangland attack, the officer was 'rebuilt' as 'Robocop'. Yes, perhaps we have seen a hint of this premise before in the likes of 'The $6,000,000 Man', but there is none of the silliness of 'Steve Austin's' bionics here. 'Robocop' doesn't wear the leisure suits of television's 'bionic man'. Instead, he is a high-tech vision of a man's form rebuilt complete with polished titanium alloy musculature. Only the brain and face remain of the officer, now reprogrammed to fight crime to no end. And that is just what 'Robocop' does. He even has a futuristic 'Magnum Force' 'big gun' that he uses with a skill equaled only by 'Harry Calahan'.

But 'Robocop' is not simply a slicker version of 'The Bionic Man' or a futurized 'Dirty Harry'. 'Robocop's' character and story have enough unique and creative elements to be able to spin quite a tale in its own right. I have a feeling that the future vision of 'Robocop' will be with us for some time to come. My only caution: 'Robocop' is rated 'R' and does contain some dramatic special effects, among which are graphic representations of shootings and the like. I think the younger or more sensitive moviegoer should be aware of this.

Muscle In At State Fair

Some heavy competition will be sweating it out on the Lincoln Stage Saturday, Aug. 22, as the Illinois State Fair Deadlift Contest gets underway at 10 a.m.

Contest coordinator Troy Well said he anticipates a good turnout of about 40 people for the event, which is being sponsored by Muscle

Corp. of Springfield.

Lifters may enter the competition until 9 a.m. on Aug. 22, when weigh-in for the contest begins. The contest is open to male and female Illinois residents who pay a $10 entry fee.

The 135th Illinois State Fair runs Aug. 13-23.

ROCK TRACKS

By Rob Ferrus

On November 9, 1967, in the fall following the Summer of Love, the first issue of Rolling Stone went on sale for 25 cents. Its purpose, as stated by its creator Jann Wenner, was to chronicle the changes within rock 'n roll as well as the changes wrought by rock music. It was also, wrote Wenner, "about things and attitudes that the music embraces."

Since then Rolling Stone has become to the postwar generation what Life Magazine was to their parents: the symbol and chronicle of contemporary culture. To commemorate the magazine's 20th anniversary, Jann Wenner has assembled a chronological 464-page synopsis entitled "20 Years of Rolling Stone: What a Long Strange Trip It's Been," available on November 9, the tabloid's 20th anniversary. This one is a must for anyone who is verbally and visually interested in reliving this unique era.

Former Eagles guitarist Joe "The Smoker You Drink, The Player You Get" Walsh has scored an instant winner at album rock radio with "The Radio Song." "The minute this record came out, album rock stations went crazy for it," says Lou Dennis, Warner Bros. vice president/director of sales. He adds that the Full Moon/Warner Bros. track is also picking up considerable airplay at several top 40 stations. (Would Joe want that?)

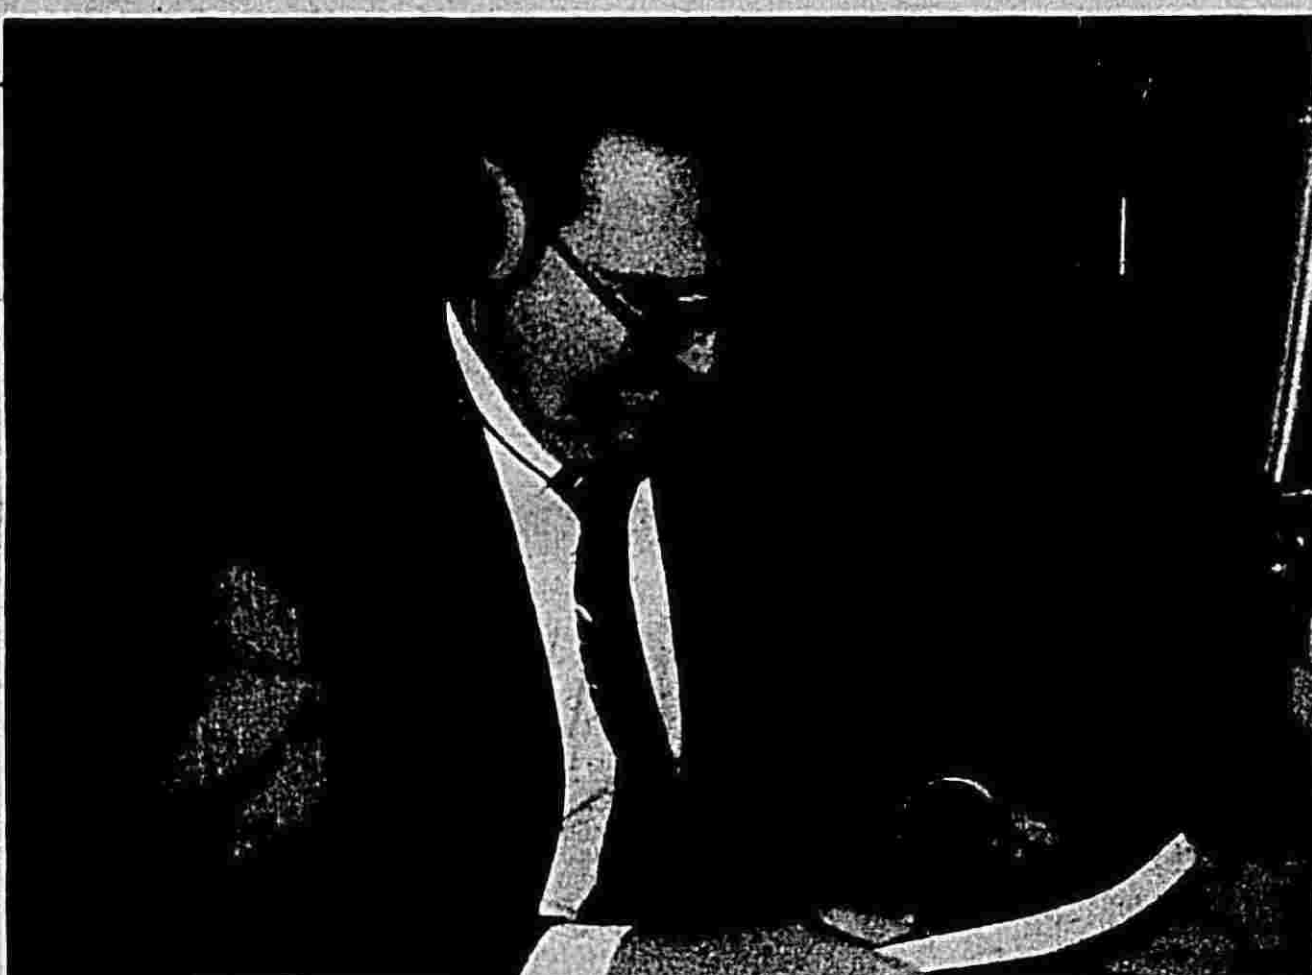

Anyway, the positive response probably can be attributed in part to Walsh's strong rapport with the radio community. An ex-DJ himself, Joe goes around the country dropping in at various stations and making a lot of friends.

"The Radio Song" is the lead off single from his latest album, "Got Any Gum," (you have to love this guy's album titles) produced and engineered by Terry Manning, best known for his work with ZZ Top. As far as live appearances are concerned, nothing has been announced as of this writing, but I can swear I hear strains of "Turn To Stone" off in the distance.

Classical Horse Ballet

Three Andalusian stallions, rare breed from Portugal, from de la Parra Farm, Texas, will perform at 10th annual MidAmerica Horse Festival, Aug. 7-9, at fairgrounds in St. Charles.

Midlane

seating for a small business or club dinner of 20 or an extravagant wedding reception fetter over 300.

Luncheon in Midlane's Loft, overlooking the silvery waterfall, is a memorable one, not only because of the casual and comfortable atmosphere, but also because of the menu chock-full of delicious luncheon specials.

For those who love breakfast anytime of the day, the Loft offers a wide variety of fluffy omelettes. There are cool crisp salads with the Great Seafood Salad (shrimp, tuna and crab) one of the most popular, and golden croissants crammed with delectable fillings, a different one everyday.

But those who want a hearty lunch after a strenuous golf game are not forgotten as the burgers, London broils and stir fry entrees often pour from the kitchen for the mid-day meal.

The Loft changes hats as the sun sinks in the west to become Midlane's popular lounge that features live entertainment on Friday and Saturday evenings. The group Shear Fate will be featured during August and the music of Rave Up will be pleasing September's patrons.

Midlane's motto, "We make your event worth remembering," is never more evident than when elegance takes over at dinner time, on Thursday, Friday or Saturday evenings.

This is when the textures of the soft teals and mauves of Midlane's decor are enhanced by the crisp ivory linen tablecloths, emblazoned with gleaming table settings.

Fine dining is one of Midlane's forte's, with a menu that matches the scenery. Said menu features, as a favorite, fresh fish of many kinds, cooked in a variety of ways, from that which is Cajun blackened, broiled, or sauteed, to fish poached in white wine and shallots.

For fowl lovers there is a house specialty, Chicken Acapulco, and for those whose preference is veal, a broiled veal loin chop, topped with an appetite appeasing demi-glaze, is the perfect palate pleaser.

Reservations for groups and parties are required.

WHAT CONDITION IS YOUR SPINE IN?

The condition of your spine has a direct relationship to your health. The spinal cord is the lifeline of the body. If you are having the sensations of numbness in the hands or feet, electric shock sensations, hot spots, cold spots, constant stinging or even burning, chances are your spine is not in the condition it should be in. These are signs of severe chronic nerve irritation and should be cared for before more serious irreversible complications occur.

Pinched nerves can be the cause of:

1. Headaches
2. Neck Pain
3. Shoulder Pain or Knee Pain
4. Difficulty Breathing
5. Lower Back Pain, Hip Pain, and Pain Down the Legs.

*Free examination includes case history, consultation with the doctor, a posture survey, and 10 orthopedic neurologic tests. X-rays, treatments, and clinical laboratory tests are not included.

TV NOSTALGIA

By Tom Eisenmann

"Soap," which aired from 1977 to 1981 on ABC, was a groundbreaking, controversial parody of the daytime soap operas. Its candid and irreverent treatment of sex prompted $2,000 letters of protest before even a single episode had aired.

The series centered on two families, the Tates and the Campbells. The wealthy Tate household consisted of Chester and Jessica Tate, their grown daughters Corinne and Eunice, their 14-year-old son Billy, Jessica's father "The Major," and Benson the butler. Chester and Jessica cheated on each other, Corinne and Eunice feuded, and Benson and Billy cracked jokes about everyone else - all while the Major continued to fight World War II in their living room.

Meanwhile Burt and Mary Campbell were struggling to consummate their recent marriage, since Burt was suffering from guilt and depression. He was also having a tough time dealing with his new stepsons - Danny, who was in the mob and wanted to kill him, and Jodie, who was gay and was frequently seen prancing around the house in his mother's clothes. Burt's own son Chuck also came to live with them, bringing his friend Bob, an obnoxious wooden puppet. In later seasons Chester went to jail, Jessica had a fling with a South American revolutionary, Jodie fathered a child, and Burt was kidnapped by 8-foot-tall aliens - among other odd occurrences.

A number of the series' stars have gone on to greater TV success. Billy Crystal (who played Jodie) starred on "Saturday Night Live"; Katherine Helmond (Jessica Tate) now stars on "Who's the Boss?"; and Robert Guillaume (Benson) starred in the "Soap" spinoff "Benson."

Question: The actor who played Peter Campbell has gone on to star in two detective series. Who is he?

Answer: Robert Urich

One weekend last spring through our Maternity Center
we showed 3 soon-to-be siblings
how to hold a new baby, helped an out-of-practice
grandpa deal with a diaper, taught 6 'expecting' couples about transition breathing
...and revived one very excited, first-time father.

It was a labor of love.

Nine months can seem like nine years when you're waiting to have a baby. And while you can't plan your delivery date, you can prepare for it.

At Northern Illinois Medical Center, we offer an on-going series of programs and classes that help you understand and enjoy every aspect of the birth experience—from the initial stages of your pregnancy all the way through to your baby's first birthday.

And in addition to taking care of our new 'moms' by providing the latest in obstetric information, birthing plans and medical services, we also have special sessions and support groups designed to prepare the rest of the family for the new arrival.

Especially first-time fathers.

Because we know that newborns can take your breath away... in more ways than one.

For more information about NIMC's Maternity Center, write to us... or call us at 1-815-344-5000, ext. 4000. If you would like the name of a physician near you, call our REFERRAL LINE: 1-800-654-NIMC.

Automotive Guide

BUYERS AND sellers come together every week in Lakeland Classified.

MARKETPLACE for smart shoppers, that's Lakeland Classified.

THIS WEEK'S

HOROSCOPE

BY SALOME

Weekly Tip: Your ambitions are attainable.

Aries (Mar. 21-Apr. 19) You're really thinking on your toes now, so get cracking on that new project. At this time, however, be sure you set aside time to be with your mate.

Taurus (Apr. 20-May 20) Any changes you want to make now should work out nicely. You're feeling awfully proud of yourself now, and rightly so. Why not celebrate?

Gemini (May 21-June 20) Your family is being quite demanding now, but your efforts are noticed. Things aren't going so well at the office, so maintain a low profile.

Cancer (June 21-Jul 20) Your friends are the ones to ask if perplexing matters have you worried. You've been doing a lot of traveling lately, so rest and relax now.

Leo (Jul 21-Aug. 22) Any discussions you have with your superiors are likely to swing in your favor, but choose your words carefully. Be direct and people will respond favorably.

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Your most trusted adviser is a bit under the weather, so cheer this one up. The work you do should be kept a secret; spring it on them all at once!

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct 22) Your amiable ways are pleasing to friends and family, so go ahead and ask for the favors you need. That Libra charm is certain to work for you now.

Scorpio (Oct. 23-Nov. 21) Romance is in the stars for you, so set out on an adventure with your loved one. Puzzling information may come your way; it's best to react calmly.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21) A good friend can give you fine ideas for your projects. Any plans you have for traveling should be well-scrutinized. Be alert for subtle changes.

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) You can make great progress in your career goals now. You've been in a rut for a long time, so do something spontaneously and live it up.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) New faces are coming your way; it would be wise to greet each one pleasantly. Be clever in business dealings. Don't let the wool fall over your eyes.

Pisces (Feb. 19-Mar. 20) Devotion can bring excellent results, both emotionally and financially. The more you meet the expectations of others, the more they'll meet yours.

If you were born this week, you are certainly up on modern trends and happenings. Your with-it attitude is sure to bring you many rewards. You have, however, a tendency to act too quickly when your back is up against the wall. You'd do well to study into any new ventures before getting involved.
